

Dharna at Jantar Mantar – Circle Secretaries please note.

Accommodation arrangements have already been made for delegates travelling from far away circles to participate in the Mass Dharna at Jantar Mantar, New Delhi. The details and addresses of the lodges/auditoriums have already been communicated separately to the concerned Circle Secretaries based on their requirements. In case of any difficulty or clarification, please contact Com. Animesh Mitra. General Secretary, will provide the necessary assistance.

On 07.08.2026, all participants are requested to assemble at Jantar Mantar sharp at 10:00 AM. The dharna programme will continue until 1:00 PM, after which food packets will be distributed to all participants. All Circle Secretaries are requested to bring their respective Circle banners to the venue. Posters and pamphlets will be distributed at Jantar Mantar before the commencement of the programme. Police permission has already been obtained for the dharna. Therefore, all participants are requested to extend full cooperation to the police and civil administration and maintain discipline to ensure the successful and peaceful conduct of the programme while forcefully projecting our legitimate demands. Considering the present rainy season in Delhi, all delegates are requested to bring an umbrella or suitable rain protection, such as a raincoat, so that they can participate in the programme even in adverse weather conditions.
