Sir,

Sub: - Delay in approving Compassionate Ground Appointments – cases sent to Corporate Office by the CGM, Andhra Pradesh circle - reg.

We wish to bring to your kind notice that the CGM, Andhra Pradesh circle, has already referred 2 cases of Compassionate Ground Appointment, to the Corporate Office. Both cases pertain to granting Compassionate Ground Appointments to the wards of the officials, who died in accidents, while on duty.

The first case is that of Shri P.Prakash, S/o P. Sudhakar, who died on 10.02.2016. The second case is that of Shri V. Murali Krishna, S/o V. Krishna Reddy, who died on 28.01.2017. Both the cases are already sent for the approval of the Corporate Office, by the CGM, Andhra Pradesh circle.

It is relevant to bring to your kind notice that, the directive issued by the Corporate Office on 09.04.2019, keeping Compassionate Ground Appointment under abeyance, should not come in the way of the settlement of both the above mentioned cases. It is because, only the vacancies arising after 01.04.2018, have been kept under abeyance for three years, by the Corporate Office, vide the aforementioned letter. Whereas, both the cases referred to by the CGM, AP circle, pertain to the period prior to 01.04.2018.

In view of the foregoing, we would like to request you to kindly look into the matter and to issue necessary guidelines to the CGM, AP circle, for granting the Compassionate Ground Appointments.

Thanking you,

Yours sincerely,

(P. Abhimanyu)
