Sir,

Sub: - Entitlement of Special Casual Leave to office bearers of the Recognised Unions – req.

Ref: - BSNL letter no.BSNL CO-A/11(11)/2/2020-ESTAB dated 02.07.2021

We wish to bring the following to your kind notice for favour of necessary action.

The Corporate Office, vide it's letter cited under reference, has endorsed the DoP&T OM no.13020/1/2019-Estt.(L) dated 07.07.2021. The DoP&T OM has given guideline for the regularisation of hospitalisation / quarantine period during COVID-19 pandemic, according to which Special Casual Leave is to be granted up to 15 / 20 days for the government servants who are in home isolation or hospitalised. As per the above instruction, Special Casual Leave has been granted to the affected officials in BSNL.

As you are aware, the office bearers of the Recognised Unions are entitled for Special Casual Leave for attending Executive Committee meetings and Conferences. Thus, the office bearers can be granted Special Casual Leave only up to a maximum of 20 days per year. Now, the problem is, such of those office bearers who have availed Special Casual Leave for home isolation / hospitalisation for COVID-19 have already availed 20 days of Special Casual Leave. Hence, they are unable to avail Special Casual Leave for attending Executive Committee meetings and Conferences.

In view of the foregoing, we request the Management to issue necessary instruction so that the Special Casual Leave availed for COVID-19 is treated separately and not mixed up with the ceiling for availing Special Casual Leave for union activities.

Thanking you,

Yours Sincerely,

[P. Abhimanyu]
General Secretary
