After the successful plein air workshop "jaltarang" in varanasi, we now head to Udaipur with Kalaarambh.

We are delighted to announce Kalaarambh Season 13

"Royal Hues in Udaipur"

International Plein Air Residential Art Workshop

25th to 28th December 2026

When we think of Rajasthan, a vibrant world of colours and rich history unfolds before us.

And when Udaipur comes to mind, visions of serene lakes and magnificent palaces emerge—standing gracefully as timeless symbols of beauty.

Blessed with natural charm, Udaipur is a place where heritage and serenity exist in perfect harmony.

For an artist, this city is a living canvas. Its rich culture, grand architecture, and vibrant life inspire creations that go beyond visuals—they tell stories. Every brushstroke captures not just a scene, but the soul of a tradition deeply rooted in time.

Here, art becomes a bridge that connects us to our legacy, allowing us to rediscover and express our cultural essence on canvas.

This season, we bring together artists from across the globe for an enriching International Plein Air Residential Art Workshop—to create, learn, and paint amidst the timeless beauty of Udaipur.

It is truly a celebration for every artist, where each painting unfolds like a story of its own.

We invite you to be a part of this enriching experience.

Join us for "Royal hues" in Udaipur.
